This month marks the end of the first academic session with the students of Campus 43. A session which was filled with many exciting and rewarding learning experiences for all students from KG till X. The invaluable time that our children spent discussing and identifying goals, is a valuable investment in helping them to plan for improvement and success at school. Here is a compilation which will showcase the skills that our children have learnt throughout the session. There are many which are not included here but which formed the stepping stones for the success awaiting our talented students. The excitement which fills us to move ahead to another year with a staff that is dedicated and motivated to make every session of our students a memorable one is beyond words. True Friendship!

There were two friends living in a village. Their names were Sara and Madiha.

They always helped each other. One day Sara saw Madiha was upset and sitting alone on the chair. She went to her and asked the matter.

Madiha told Sara that her parents were so poor and they couldn't pay this month fees and the next day was the last day of paying fees. Sara went to her house and with her elder sister, she went to the gold shop and sold her necklace. The next day, she paid Madiha's fees. Madiha hugged Sara and she was so happy. She thanked Sara and said, "You are my true friend."

In reply Sara said, "That's what friends are for!"

"Friendship Quotes"

Hardworking Is The Key to Success

Once there was a wood cutter who lived in the hut with his family and he cut the wood from the trees to make the furniture. He was leading a peaceful life and thanked Allah. He made furniture and sold them. One day the king called the wood cutter to his castle and said, "You are a hard-working man and now I will bless you with gold coins."

The wood cutter built a big house with gold coins. He hired a maid and the maid cooked delicious food and his family ate the food and they thanked Allah SWT even more. He led a peaceful life because he took care of poor people and his family lived happily together.

Trees And Dustbin

Once upon a time there was a beautiful park. In the park, there were two trees. One was mango tree and the other was apple tree. They were so beautiful and big.

Between the mango tree and apple tree there was a dustbin.

People who came to the park saw mango and apple trees and climbed on them. The apple tree didn't like the dustbin.

It used to say, "We are so beautiful and clean and dust bin is so dirty and small. Why is the dust bin standing here?

The dust bin got upset and started crying. Mango tree was good and happy with the dustbin.

It tried to comfort him by saying, "Oh please, dear dustbin! Don't cry! You are important for me and people but apple tree doesn't understand this."

Apple tree heard them and said, "It is not important for me and the people. Dustbin, you will go from here and stand away from the trees!"

At night, dustbin went to the other side of trees. In the morning, trees got up and looked around and everything was dirty. There was too much garbage around the apple and mango tree because there were no dustbin and people didn't want to come near them. Apple tree realized it's mistake and said sorry to the dustbin.

Practice Makes perfect

Last year we had a sports event in our school. There was a girl whose name is Aliha. She wanted to participate in hurdle race, but her friends discouraged her.

They said, "You can never do it, so don't participate."

After hearing this, she didn't participate and sat at the side with a sad face. Her teacher had seen them talking. She went to Aliha and asked why she wasn't participating. Aliha told everything to her teacher. Teacher said to Aliha that be hopeful and practice because practice makes a man perfect. Aliha practiced and on the day of Sports took the third position. From this we learn a very important lesson that is " Practice makes a man perfect".

Wisdom and Knowledge

One day Ali went on a journey to visit a holy place. As he was walking, he met a wise man sitting by the side of the road. The man asked Ali where he was going, and Ali told him about his journey. The wise man smiled and said, "I have a special gift for you, Ali it is the book of wisdom and knowledge. You must read it every day and keep it close to you. Then you will become wise and learn many things."Ali thanked the wise man and accepted the book. He took it home and read it every day. He found that it was full of wisdom and knowledge, and he began to understand the teaching of Islam more deeply, Ali began to realize the teaching of Islam were deeper than words. They were a way of life. He started to focus on doing good deeds and helping others and soon he become well-respected in his village.

Ali's story is a reminder to us that knowledge and wisdom are important and that we must always strive to learn more about our faith. May Allah give us the strength to do so Amen!

Pencil in my mouth

Once my elder sister was doing her school work and I was a little girl at that time. We were both sitting on the bed and I was playing with my sister's pencil.

Without thinking, I put the pencil in my mouth and as a result started shaking. I fell down from the bed and got hit. The tip of the pencil pierced through my mouth and blood starting flowing. My mother quickly picked me up and put a tea leaf in my mouth to stop the bleeding. Whenever my mother tells this story, I laugh.

Mother The Best Friend !

I stared at my mother as she was in deep sleep and then I adjusted her duvet and smiled at her; not at all furious as I was two hours earlier when we had broken into an argument. I turned off the lamp and lights in her room and left the house to have a peaceful time in the quietest place. I glanced at my watch which indicated 11:30. I drove my car toward the countryside to have a peaceful moment... my escape from troubles. As I was driving the car, the scene of our argument rolled up in my mind. The argument that was now almost a habit. "Why do you always do what I hate Lu Sen?"

"Because I love that and I know what is right or wrong... And you don't know about this new generation. I'm an adult, mom! Please don't teach me."

"But Lu Sen I'm saying this for your betterment."

"Oh for God's sake, mom! I know what is right or wrong."

I feel regret for what I said to mom but I just had enough of it... I hate to argue with her but, I lose my patience at her constant nagging behavior. After all, I was a grown-up now and she needs to treat me as one. With all these thoughts rushing through my mind, I stay at that place till 2:00 and then drive back thinking she would still be sleeping. But to my surprise, she was awake when I reached home. Ignoring her searching look and a few guestions about my whereabouts, I keep to myself and get locked in my room.

The next day at college, I was with my friends, when Zhan said,

"You know what? My mom is my best friend since childhood. She is the one who always understands me and

"You know what? My mom is my best friend since childhood. She is the one who always understands me and gives me the best advice ever! Are you and your mother best friends, Lu Sen?"

The question hit me hard. Are we best friends? Do we share everything?

"Yeah...Of course, we are!" I lied.

I got up and went to the library. I wanted some minutes alone! There was a book on the table where I sat titled 'Your First Friend'. I picked up the book; it made me curious somehow and I started reading it. The first lines that I read were these: that and it made me realize what I was doing

"You must be wondering how can a mother be your first friend...But trust me she is! When a baby is born, a mother takes care of it no matter what obstacles come her way.

We spend most of our childhood with her and she knows everything about us! She was the one who suffered so much to give birth to us. She overcame many complicated stages in her life. We need too know her! It will be possible only if we spend some time with her and have a strong relationship."

These lines captivated me and I realized my mistake!

There and then, I promised that I will change myself and have a strong bond with her.

Although, I still get the urge to quarrel with her, I remind myself of her struggles and it makes it easier to cool down. Now, I can claim that my mother is my best friend!

Motivation- A key to success

Nowadays students are suffering from stress. They are suffering because their mind says nothing is possible. I also used to think like that, I used to think that studies were very hard and that homework, exams were really stressful for me. I thought there was a heavy load on me of everything. But then something like a shining torch in a dark place came to my life which changed my life; made my life easier, made me happy, motivated me for hardest things in my life, and it was an a beautiful and inspiring ayah. in Quran ; Surah Baqarah, verse 286

"Allah does not burden a soul beyond that it can bear."

It was really encouraging for me. I was so happy after knowing about that. I don't know about anyone else but it was so motivating for me. This Ayah told me to keep going ahead in my life and face the upcoming challenges in my life. It inspires me for not only studies but for more things I am going to face in my life.

I really hope that this encourages you. I hope all the readers reading this be inspired and motivated to know more about our Lord's Blessings. I would be so happy to know that someone was motivated by reading this.

Global warming

Global Warming written by an unknown writer Earth had been formed about 4.6 billion years ago. Its temperature would keep changing and still it is.

It had been warmer in the past than today and sometimes much colder than ever. Scientists study earth by drilling its ice core out of ice sheets in Antartica.

When we burn fuels, gases are released into the atmosphere. This emission of gases is increasing so is the temperature of Earth. 70% energy comes from burning fossil fuels. All living things use and store carbons.

The green house gases absorb heat from the sun and heat up the planet. Carbon dioxide gas makes up more than 99 of the green house gases in Earth's atmosphere. The green house effect is a natural process discovered in 1896.

The increasing population is another factor of rising global temperature.

Then another boy Mike Teaue found one. Then the boy Charlie fond a coin on his way from school. He bought a candy and ate it. He decided to buy another and it had the golden ticket. The next day Mr. Wonka had set for his guests to enter the factory.

Neither Mrs. nor Mr. Bucket can accompany Charlie to the factory. In the factory, Charlie and Grandpa Joe marvel at the unbelievable sights, sounds, and especially smell of the factory. The other four children succumb to their own character flaw.

Accordingly, they are removed from the factory in mysterious yet painful ways. Augustus Loop falls into the dark chocolate river while attempting to drink it. Veronica Salt is determined to be a bad nut by not judging the squirrels who throw her out in the trash. Mike Teaue shrinks himself, and his father has to carry him out in his pocket. Charlie remains steadfast in his belief that everything will work out in the end.

Don't forget about the man who gets everything in the end.

میں ایک کرسی ہوں۔ میں لکڑی سے بنتی ہوں۔ جب کوئی مجھ پہ بیٹھتا ہے تو مجھے اچھا لگتا ہے۔ مجھ پہ مختلف نقش و نگار بنے ہوتے ہیں۔ جب کوئی مجھے گراتا ہے یا مجھ پہ نشان لگاتا ہے تو مجھے تکلیف ہوتی ہے۔

پانی کی بوتل

كرسى

میں ایک پانی کی بوتل ہوں۔ لوگ مجھے پانی پینے کے لیے استعال کرتے ہیں۔ بچ بھی مجھے استعال کرتے ہیں ، میں مختلف رنگ، سائز اور ڈیزائن میں ملتی ہوں۔ کچھ بچ مجھے بہت سنجال کر رکھتے ہیں اور کچھ مجھے گراتے اور پھینکتے ہیں جو مجھے بہت برا لگتا ہے۔ مجھے صاف رکھیں اور میرا خیال رکھیں، تا کہ میں بھی خوش رہوں اور آپ بھی صحت مند رہیں۔

اگر میں پانی ہوتا تو سب سے پہلے میں لوگوں کو آگ سے بچپاتا۔ نمازیوں کے وضو کے کام آتا۔ پھول پودوں کی خوراک بنتا۔ مزے مزے کے کھانے پکانے کے کام آتا۔لوگ مجھے سادہ بھی پینے اور کسی مشروب بنانے میں بھی استعال کرتے۔ میں بارش کا پانی بن کر بادلوں میں جمع ہوجاتا اور پھر تیز برستا۔ لوگ مجھے اپنے بہت سے کاموں میں استعال کرتے۔ میں بےرنگ اور بے ذائقہ ہوتا۔ میں خشک زمین کے کام آتا۔ میری مدد سے بہت سی فصلیں بڑی ہوتیں۔ پھل لگتے درختوں پر۔میں اللہ تعالٰی کی بہت ساری نعمتوں میں سے ایک نعمت ہوتا۔
