The week ended successfully and each competition was spent with full energy and enthusiasm. Alhamdulillah!

RESPECT PARENTS & TEACHERS

Make Dua for your parents and teachers after every Salah. We should instantly reply to them when they call us we should not talk loudly in their presence. We should treat our parents with kindness.

MORNING ASSEMBLY

We hold regular morning presentations to build student's confidence and showcase their individual talents. Every child gets a chance to participate and perform in front of the whole school. Students are assigned fun and educational topics and the teachers assist them with the preparations. The presentations can be in the form of speeches, role plays and skits.

AL – QUR'AN

"O you, who believe, seek help through patience and prayer. Surely, Allah is with those who are patient." (Qur'an. 2:153)

SNACK TIME ACTIVITIES

Snack time can be a fun learning opportunity with the help of delicious preschool snack activities. Doing snacks recipe activities with our children can be a fun way to help and learn key skills. Snack time activity held at school is both fun and educational. We have organized many snack time activities in our campus. Students learnt how to make shake, sandwiches, and fruit chaat.

BOOK FAIR

A book is said to be the best friend of man. A book is a Treasure House of Knowledge. Books are wonderful gifts to mankind. Books are useful in many ways. They educate, entertain and serve as good companions when we are lonely. They guide us when we are confused. They inspire us when we are low in spirit. We are never alone in the company of books. Knowing the importance of the books, our school arranges book fair after Eid-ul-Fitr every year. This year also, our school organized a wonderful book fair. Within the enclosure there were numerous stalls of different publishers. Students visited many stalls and went through many books. Hundreds of books were exhibited on tables. Parents were also invited to visit the book fair. The book fair held for three days. It really helped students in buying the books of their own choice on reasonable price in a conducive environment.

Our UPSS, Rain the desert

A School is the most memorable place for any learner. But when it comes to teachers, most of us regard it as a part of our journey. For me the connection with UPSS is beyond imagination. I have immense respect and compassion for everything that belongs to my institution.

There are countless things which make my school a great school. It begins with hard work and determination. School climate, cohesive staff, community involvement, a strong leader, and a rigorous curriculum are the key factors that enhance its greatness and make it a real rain in the desert. Our school has a safe, healthy and intellectually stimulating learning environment. Students feel respected and connected with the staff and are engaged in learning.

I vividly remember stepping in to the institution more than a decade ago. The communicative educating system I learned from my seniors was an inspiring way for me that perhaps no one had initiated at that time. I believe a trusted faculty plays a backbone in maintaining and bringing forward the quality of education and luckily seniors and management holds that credit to make this happen. UPSS holds true colors and fundamentals of education that ideologically and practically our society desires.

UPSS is and will remain parents only choice for being ethically secure environment provider where student-centered learning and engagement teaching techniques are practiced and that too in a very reasonable prize.

Vision, ideas and goals of the institution helps in true meanings where ones hope shape into excellence. I am happy to be the part where new ideas, subjects and individual perspectives are welcomed. While working, I have developed an ever rising appetite of continuous learning that defines more about functional and social aspects with regard to education. This is why I can proudly say that this description not only resonates with me, it defines me.

In sha Allah, we will form a strong and mighty Bond.

The Greedy Dog

There was a dog that was very hungry. He searched for food everywhere and at last he found a bone. He picked the bone with his mouth and started going back to his home. There was a bridge on the way to his home. When he started crossing it he saw his reflection in the water. The dog thought that there was another dog with a bone in water. He wanted to get that other bone too.

So he started barking at his own reflection. His bone fell in water as soon as he opened his mouth. The greedy dog lost his bone.

Sun and winter

One day the sun and winter had an argument.

Both said

"I am stronger than you"

Just then, they saw wet clothes on a rope. The sun had an idea. The sun said to winter.

Whoever dries these clothes fast is stronger. The cold wind started blowing, but the clothes did not dry. It was now the sun's turn. He came out and began to shine brighter. The clothes immediately dry. The sun had proved that he was stronger than winter.

My Hobby

My hobby is to help others. Whenever I get leisure time on weekends I go with my father and I feed needy people. I give some money to them and some clothes to children. When they smile, I become happy. I also deliver food and water to them. There is one girl Sara she has become my friend. She waits for me every Sunday. I share my toys with her. I like her so much.

نظم: برسات کا موسم

وہ دیکھو وہ دیکھو وہ کالے بادل آئے
بارش کا موسم ساتھ لے آئے
خوب کالی کالی گھٹائیں چھانے لگیں
برسات کی بوندیں زمین پر آنے لگیں
بچے خوشی سے کھلانے لگے
برسات کے مزے اڑانے لگے
بڑوں نے بھی خوب تفریحیں لیں
جب دیکھا بارش تیز ہوئی
ٹھنڈی ٹھنڈی ہوائیں جب چلنے لگیں
گرمی اور جس کی چھٹی ہوئی
پھول پودے برسات میں نہانے لگے
درخت ، بیل بوٹے کھڑکھڑ جانے لگے
برسات کا موسم سبھی کو بھانے لگا
سموسے ، پکوڑے کھانے کا دل چاہنے لگا
پرندے اپنے گھوسلوں میں چھپ گئے
اور سورج چمکنے کا انتظار کرنے لگے
برسات کا موسم سماں بنانے لگا
اللہ پاک کی رحمت کا لطف آنے لگا

One hot afternoon a thirsty ant was wondering in search of water. After searching for long, ant saw a river and started moving towards it when ant came close to river could not find direct way to drink water and climbed up a rock and while trying to drink water, it lost balance and fell into the river. It started looking for a way to save itself then from somewhere a leaf fell in front of it and somehow ant was able to climb that leaf. Presented by students of Class 3 Rose

Salah is one of the obligatory five pillars of Islam and is a privilege blessed upon us by Allah SWT. It holds many great attributes as we pray for nobody but ourselves, as the reward is primarily for us. As Our beloved Prophet Muhammad P.B.U.U said, "And he, who performs salah before sunrise and salah before sunset, will not enter the gates of hell." Most of us get into the habit of waking up for Fajr prayer only during the holy month of Ramadan, but we should aim to continue this practice throughout the year to continue our reward. Allah SWT sends His angels to protect us and guide us throughout our day, just by offering Fajr salah. Shaitan stays away from the person and these two sunnah of Fajr salah are regarded as more precious than everything between sky and earth. We should safeguard our prayers as salaah is precious and its rewards are infinite.
