BOOK FAIR

Books play a vital role in development intellectual growth, increasing prospects, and promoting a lifelong love for learning. Reading books is not merely a leisure activity but a gateway to a world of knowledge, imagination, and different perspectives. Through books, individuals can explore different cultures, historical periods, and scientific advancements, gaining insights that extend beyond their immediate experiences. Reading enhances critical thinking skills, encourages empathy, and nurtures creativity. It serves as a timeless reservoir of wisdom, allowing readers to delve into the thoughts of great minds and learn from the collective knowledge of humanity.

Today I am going to tell you about my fantastic experience of Book Fair held in Usman Public School campus 26. The event was very awesome. There were a lot of books about the astronomy, historical stories, adventurous and novels etc. The books have a myriad of information about the topic. My personal experience on book fair was very good and exciting. I was very excited about the book fair.

On the first day, the book fair happened. There were also books related to Islamic topics .Books prices were half which was affordable and flexible. I bought six books on first day, they all were based on the Islamic topics. The books were about the Holy prophet Muhammad (S.A.W). The same books in the market feels like very expensive. On the second day I bought nine books which were related to astronomy and adventurous stories. I read all of the books in the Summer Vacations .They were very informative through which I learnt about the Ottoman Empire, Napoleon space ships, Satellites and the Islamic history. I got myriad of information about so many things and I am very thankful to Usman Public School campus 26 for arranging this remarkable event.

ANNUAL SPORTS DAY

Games play a crucial role in human development and well-being, serving as more than just a source of entertainment. They provide a myriad of mental, social, and emotional benefits. Moreover, they serve as a powerful stress reliever and a means of distraction, offering individuals a break from the demands of daily life.

Additionally, games often create a sense of community, connecting people with shared interests across geographical boundaries. Whether it is video games, board games, or sports, the importance of games lies in their ability to entertain, educate, and bring people together, contributing to a well-rounded and fulfilling human experience.

On December 15, 2023 Usman Public School campus 26 hosted an event called sports day .Everyone waited for this day whole year. Before one week of sports day students were selected for different games .I was selected as a captain of cricket for warm up match and for main match I played as a bowler. Besides cricket there were also different games were included in different day such as 100 meter race, spoon race, sack race and three legged race etc. also completed 100 meter race the day before sports day, a trial was held by my class teacher. On the sports day, all of my friends reached at ground early in the morning, teachers were also present there. My class teacher took attendance at the ground then the assembly started. The games started and the first game was spoon race but I did not participate in it then the 100 meter race started and I lost it.

then the cricket match started .The match was held between VIII Green versus VII Blue. The first match was in our luck. After some rest I had my lunch, the second match was won by us and we processed to final match between VI Blue. They were tough but our prayers were accepted by Allah SWT and we won the final by the grace of Allah. It was the great day, I enjoyed a lot then this remarkable event ended at 1:30 'o clock and I reached with delightful memories

PICNIC TO RIVERSIDE FARM HOUSE

It was a beautiful morning on 10th August 2023 which was a bit different for other mornings because of a reason that we were going on a picnic to “Riverside Farm House” with our school. I was so excited that I could not control myself. On that day I reached school. I took football for playing there .Some students brought cricket stuff so we started playing cricket in the school before the teachers came. As the time passed, our excitement level was increasing. Finally the time came which we were waiting. Teachers instructed us to move towards the picnic bus.

Our journey started at 9:00 clock we set off for farmhouse it was one hour drive from our school to farmhouse we were having fun in the bus during our journey we had a snacks we played games we talked a lot we were also thinking that about farmhouse. Finally after a long time, we reached the farmhouse we jumped from the bus and run towards the farmhouse. Our teachers stopped us and told us to make a line then they gave us instructions about farmhouse and let us change clothes after that we all went to swimming pool to have fun we had a great time in swimming.

After sometime I went to play cricket with my elder brother I played well then teachers called us for Namaz after getting free from Namaz we ate our lunch which was provided by our school management at 3:30 o'clock my class teacher informed us that we are going to home now we hurriedly packed our bags and got ready for returning in the journey back to school most of the students were sleeping. We reached School at 5:30 p.m. Our parents had come to receive us .When we were going to home we were not just carrying our bags and other stuff but also some good memories and it was the joy of truly delightful picnic experience it was a great picnic and memorable day of my life

ASHRA-E-IQBAL

As I entered the auditorium the air was buzzing with excitement for the 10 day program honoring Allama Muhammad Iqbal. The opening day marked the beginning of an enriching journey. Urdu and English speech and other competitions were announced and I felt a surge of inspiration to share my thoughts on Iqbal's profound philosophy. Participating in both the Urdu and English speech competition was a challenge, but it was unique opportunity to express my understanding of Allama Iqbal in diverse linguistic dimension. There was Allama Iqbal's Urdu poetry competition unfolded on the fifth day .I embraced the chance to recite the verse that resonated with me.

It was a poetic journey that not only celebrated the richness of the Urdu language but also immersed me in the profound themes of Iqbal poetry. The eighth day brought a burst of colors and imagination as student engaged in poster making .Armed with makers and creativity, we visually conveyed the essence of Iqbal philosophy. The poster became not just artistic expression but vibrant reflection of our collective appreciation for Iqbal vision. As the program culminated on the tenth day, our school echoed with the culmination of efforts. Winner were celebrated poster adored the walls, and the resonance of Iqbal verse lingered in the air. In those 10 days, I not only explored the depth of Iqbal wisdom but also witnessed the power of collective creativity and shared the cultural appreciation. Allama Iqbal program became more than an event; a brief yet impactful chapter in my school life, a journey of self-expression cultural celebration and a profound connection with the enduring legacy of Allama Muhammad Iqbal.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Pakistan Independence Day, celebrated annually on August 14th, marks the nation's liberation from British colonial rule in 1947. It's a day of profound significance, honoring the sacrifices made by countless individuals who fought for freedom. On this day, Pakistanis across the globe come together to honor their heritage and reaffirm their commitment to the ideals of democracy, equality, and progress. The day is characterized by flag hoisting ceremonies, patriotic speeches, and vibrant cultural displays, reflecting the rich diversity of Pakistan's people. It's a moment to reflect on the journey towards independence and to recognize the challenges overcome in building a sovereign nation. Pakistan Independence Day serves as a touching reminder of the resilience and unity that define the Pakistani spirit.

Assalam u Alaikum! My name is Mohammed Saleem and today I am going to tell you about (The independence day celebration held in my school I love to participate in this kind of functions I worked really hard on the speech from dawn to dusk when it was finished I read it and it was really good . On the next day of school it was the 14th August function I was really excited when my name was called risked up on the stage and presented everyone and outstanding speech everyone club and shared I hate so much fun I was happy that I got a chance to participate in a function.

CHILDREN GAZA MARCH

On 7th October 2023 after the Israel's genocide on Gaza, Hamas took revenge and launched 5000 missiles towards Israel and their defense system failed to stop the missiles which were launched simultaneously towards them. After this revenge Israel started shooting missiles, air strikes and terrorism began to rise. People of Gaza were shot by Israel and the number of Martyr increased day by day.

Due to this condition, all the Muslims around the world raised their voices against Israel terrorism .In all Muslim countries the march was held all over the world. In Pakistan, the protests and marches were held all over the country. On 8th November the children Gaza march was organized by Jamat e Islami in Karachi. Many schools were invited in that march to participate and raised their voices for Palestine and the People of Gaza. I also participate in that march with my friends and beloved teachers. .We first went to school and started preparation for Gaza march then we sat in bus and started our journey .When we reached there. We saw there a big crowd of students and teachers from different schools .Our school campus was standing in front of the stage .

I saw children who had models of the martyrs, some made the posters and the mostly people were holding flags of Palestine in their hands . Then the march started with the name of Allah Almighty then the children sang some poems to pay tribute to the people of Gaza. Then the Whole crowd raised slogans of Takbeer and chanting “Free Palestine” after that the president of Jamat –e-Islami gave honorable speech and we gave tribute to the Hamas Mujahideen. Then Hafiz Naeem-ur-Rahman gave tribute to Abu –Ubaidullah and his soldiers who defended their homeland and saved innocent people after that the funds were announced that were given to the people of Palestine to meet their necessary needs. Usman Public School System gave 40 Lacs fund then we all prayed for the victims and Martyrs of Palestine brave people. Finally the program came to end then we sat in our buses and came back to our schools .We really observed the sorrowful feelings of children while raising their voices for the Palestine people .We also had a pain for them in our hearts and we love them and always ready to do everything for them.

TOPIC: TO ERR IS HUMAN

Understanding the integral facets of the human experience is crucial for personal growth, societal harmony, and the pursuit of excellence. The timeless proverb highlights the universal nature of human nature, emphasizing the inherent capacity for error and the need for understanding and growth. Human fallibility is a universal truth, encompassing cultural, geographical, and temporal boundaries. Recognizing these instances as learning opportunities is crucial. Mistakes serve as powerful catalysts for personal growth. In the words of Winston Churchill,

"Success is not final, failure is not fatal: It is the courage to continue that counts."

Each misstep offers a chance to reassess, learn, and build resilience. Admitting our errors requires humility, a quality that fosters empathy and understanding in our interactions with others. In the pursuit of knowledge and innovation, errors are not roadblocks but stepping stones. They pave the way for discovery, refinement, and progress.

The renowned Thomas Edison once asserted,

"I have not failed. I've just found 10,000 ways that won't work."

The universal truth of human fallibility transcends temporal boundaries, offering valuable learning opportunities for understanding and addressing

رَبَّنَا لَا تُؤَاخِذْنَا إِنْ نَسِينَا أَوْ أَخْطَأْنَا

challenges that transcend cultural, geographical, and temporal boundaries.

Personal development and resilience are integral parts of a more enlightened world, as acknowledging errors and imperfections fosters grace, empathy, and a path towards a better, more enlightened world. Pope's words emphasize the inherent human nature, highlighting the journey of errors and wisdom gained from them.

Acknowledging our fallibility fosters resilience, empathy, and continuous improvement, promoting a more harmonious existence. as it is stated in Quran that

Our Lord, do not impose blame upon us if we have forgotten or erred.

IMPORTANCE OF GOOD HEALTH

It is a famous saying "If wealth is lost nothing is lost, if health is lost, something is lost, but if character is lost then everything is lost". Unfortunate are those people who give preference to wealth in place of health or character and totally neglect health and character. Good health is the real jewel of life. The traditional and simplest definition of health is that it is free of sickness and disease. According to UNO, health is mental, physical, and social well-being. It is absolutely correct that "Health is wealth because wealth does not only mean money but something precious like health". Let us suppose the example of a man who is very wealthy having all the comfort of life but he would not be able to enjoy none of it if he or she is unhealthy.

On the other hand, a healthy poor man win certainly be much happier. Because he is free from all types of pains, sufferings and diseases. That is why it is said that “Health is real wealth”. It is, therefore, clear that health is a great treasure for us and it must be guarded completely. We must take the greatest care of our bodies because our lives, depend entirely upon healthy bodies. Serious troubles with body machine would mean death-an end to life itself. A man who possesses sound health is indeed a very rich man.

"Take care of your body. It's the only place you have to live." - Jim Rohm

“Action Speaks Louder Than Word’s”

Action speaks louder than words is an old-age proverb. This proverb is valuable, wise and mature in its own. This proverb explain one of most valuable and important life lesson that those things which are done have stronger impact than things which are said. It is very easy for anyone for elaborate their goals or feelings by words but it is equally difficult for one to work upon their words.

Talks can bring momentary satisfaction but only proper action can bring trust and respect in the run. It is easy to make promise or say things sounds so good but is much more challenging to follow through on that promise and demonstrate a commitment to those values.

This proverb can be best understood by the example that a country cannot pray only by the speeches of the representation of the state but it requires a proper development plan to work upon in order to make a country progressive and prosperous.

You can only leave a good impact on a person by your words but it is your action, hard work and your dedication towards your commitment which makes you a devoted and trustworthy person in front of others. Words have temporary and short-time effect on a person on the other hand, your action leads to a permanent and long-time effect. You will be trusted and admired by everyone if you act upon what you say. People will consider you a devoted, sincere and wise person. Who has the ability to do what he says.

Our life goals, career, achievements etc. all are based on our hard work and our proper and wise action, not on our words or saying. For instance; if a person says that he wanted to be a doctor so he will only be admired when he will become a doctor. It means, that a person is determined by his acting not by his sayings.

Once a teacher in a classroom made all the students pay attention towards him, then he told them to put their fingers on their chin while putting his own finger on his cheek. By following him, most of the students put their finger on their cheeks. This proves that:

“A BIRD IN THE HAND IS WORTH TWO IN THE BUSH”

Once upon a time in a quaint village nestled between rolling hills and lush greenery, there lived a young boy named Oliver. Oliver had always dreamt of owning a beautiful bird as a companion. One day, he heard about a mystical forest on the outskirts of the village, where the most magnificent birds were said to dwell. Driven by excitement, Oliver set out on a journey to the enchanted forest. As he ventured deeper into the woods, he came across an old man with a wise look in his eyes. The old man greeted him warmly and spoke, "Young one, in this forest, you may find birds more splendid than you can imagine. But remember, a bird in the hand is better than two in the bushes."

Perplexed, Oliver thanked the old man and continued his quest. As he walked deeper into the woods, he spotted two dazzling birds perched on a branch. Their feathers shimmered in the sunlight, and their songs echoed through the trees. Oliver couldn't resist the temptation and reached out to catch them. However, just as he extended his hands, the birds fluttered away, disappearing into the thick foliage. Disheartened, Oliver recalled the old man's words. Determined to follow the sage advice, he continued his journey with a newfound perspective. Soon, Oliver stumbled upon a small clearing where a solitary, but exquisite, bird with vibrant plumage sat. Without hesitation, he gently approached and extended his hand. To his delight, the bird hopped onto his palm, forming a bond with the young boy.

Oliver realized that sometimes, the truest treasures are the ones we hold close, appreciating the value of what we have rather than endlessly chasing elusive dreams.

FUN FACTS ABOUT ENGLISH LANGUAGE

Shakespeare added over 1500 new words and expressions to English

This one may be familiar to you. If you've read Shakespeare, you know how important his part in the English literature is. However, his writing significantly affected the English language as well.

There are more than 1500 words – common words! – that we today use thanks to Shakespeare. He created new words in many ways, such as transforming one part of speech into another, or adding a prefix or a suffix that had never been used before with that particular word.

How often do you say eyeball, lonely, outbreak, submerge, torture or gossip? Well these are just some of the words Shakespeare adapted or made up that are now in common use.

English used to have grammatical gender

Grammatical gender is one of the things English got rid of over time.

It was present in the English language until the 13th century and it was expressed through articles! There used to be a masculine article 'se' and a feminine 'see'. Even when using pronouns, you wouldn't say 'it' for things, as you do today, but you'd say 'he' or 'she', depending on the gender.

Some linguists believe the gender ceased to exist because of the Vikings. When they invaded Northern England, they brought their language, Old Norse, which also had genders. The trouble was they didn't always match the ones in English, so they think people stopped using them to avoid complications.

The English alphabet used to have more letters

If you've ever thought English spelling is complicated, think again. Did you know it used to have even more letters than today?

As English has evolved it has been simplified. Thank goodness for that because there's no way English would have made it as a global language with a dozen additional letters.

For example, there was 'thorn', a letter that was written almost like p, but pronounced as today's. Also there was a 'yogh', pronounced as 'ch' in Middle English. And a long S that looks much like the letter F in cursive.

English is the official language of the air

If you want to fly an aero plane, you have to speak English. This isn't a joke, as this rule was established after a terrible accident that happened at the Tenerife airport in 1977. Two airplanes collided because one of the pilot's English wasn't clear enough for the tower to understand what he said. Today if you want to be a part of aviation staff you need to take a proficiency test that includes aviation terminology as well as the capability to understand English when there are obstructions or interferences, as often happens over radio.

There are plenty of contronyms in English What exactly are contronyms? These represent words that have two opposite meanings. The meaning can be elaborated from the context in which it's used. Does this sound weird to you? How can a word mean opposite things?

The English language has plenty of examples. For instance, there's the verb 'to dust'.

You can both dust your cake with some sugar powder, or dust the table to remove the dirt from it. To cleave can mean to cling or to divide. What about overlook? Are you monitoring someone or not noticing their mistakes?

Wow... English can be really confusing sometimes.

Some words have changed their meaning over time

If you could talk to someone from the past, there's a chance a misunderstanding would happen. Why? In English, there are some words that changed their meaning over time. And not just a little – a lot!

For example, awesome. We use this word way too often, but it hasn't always had a positive meaning. The word is derived from 'awe', which used to mean fear or terror. That's where awful came from. So, awesome had a pretty negative connotation until the 1980s.

The word 'furniture' used to refer to any kind of equipment, but the meaning narrowed down over time. And, watch this, 'girl' used to mean a child! People used this word both for boys and girls.

The average English speaker knows only 40,000 words in English

Linguists say that the English language contains around one million words. You can't really confirm this claim, because there are numerous words with multiple meanings, compound words, and so on.

But let's say this number is close to reality. Do we really use one million different words every day? Of course not. There's been some research on this topic and the results show the following: an average English speaker knows and uses around 40,000 words.

This refers to people who are native speakers and have a university diploma. If you want to single out the most frequently used words, common in everyday situations, the number falls down to 5000.

Now it probably feels like you've just met English for the first time! Some of these facts are funny, some of them are curious, but one thing is true: there's plenty to learn about this wonderful language every day.

آم کی چوری

کوئی چور ایک باغ میں گھس گیا اور آم کے پیڑ پر چڑھ کر اس کی شاخوں کو اس قدر ہلایا کہ کئی آم نیچے آ پڑے اتفاقاً مالی بھی آ گیا اور چور کو دیکھ کر کہنے لگا کچھ خدا کا بھی خوف کرنا چاہیے تجھے آخر مرنا ہے اور پھر حساب کتاب کے لیے قیامت کے دن اٹھنا ہے تب خدا کو کیا منہ دکھاؤ گے چور بولا تم کون ہو یہ باغ خدا کا ہے اور میں خدا کا بندہ ہوں۔ وہ کھلاتا ہے اور میں کھاتا ہوں اس کے حکم کے بغیر تو پتہ بھی نہیں بل سکتا مجھ سے جا ملانہ کر معلوم ہوتا ہے تجھ میں جہالت ہے اور عقل نام کو بھی نہیں۔

مالی نے یہ بات سن کر دل میں کہا چور بڑا منطقی ہے میں اسی کی منطق میں ایسا مناسب جواب دوں گا کہ عمر بھرنہ بھولے گا مالی بولا حضرت نیچے آئیے ہم پر کرم فرمائیے آپ کی محبت غنیمت ہے مدت بعد آپ جیسا بزرگ ملا ہے جس نے توحید کا نقطہ دل کر دیا ہے۔ پیرو مرشد تشریف لائیے اور ہمیں راہ نجات دکھائیے چور ایک بھرم کے ساتھ نیچے اتر آیا مالی نے وہیں پکڑ لیا اور ام کے درخت سے خوب مضبوطی سے باندھ کر پہلے تو مکوں سے اس کی توازہ کی جب تھک گیا تو لاٹھی لے کر اس کی خوب مرمت کی جب مالی نے چور کو ڈھیلا کر دیا تو وہ فریاد کرنے لگا اے ظالم خدا سے ڈر میں نے تیرا کیا نقصان کیا ہے کہ مجھ بے گناہ کو یوں بے دردی سے کیوں پیٹ رہا ہے؟ مالی نے ہنس کر جواب دیا حضرت اتنی جلدی اپنا عمل بھول گئے کیا اس لاٹھی کو خدا نے نہیں بنایا کیا مارنے والا ہاتھ اور مار کھانے والا جسم خدا کا پیدا کردہ نہیں؟ آپ کیوں گلا کرتے ہیں اور اس میں آپ کا کیا نقصان؟ اس کے حکم کے بغیر تو پتہ بھی نہیں بل سکتا آپ کی یہ فریاد جاہلانہ ہیں چور نے کہا میں نے بکواس کی اور جھک ماری مجھے اب چھوڑ دے آئندہ میں کبھی ایسی بات منہ سے نہ نکالوں گا اور نہ کبھی چوری کا نام لوں گا۔

افسانچہ

ایک دفعہ کا ذکر ہے کہ ایک چھوٹے سے کبوتر نے اپنے خاندان کے ساتھ ایک جنگل میں رہنا شروع کیا اسے ایک دن ایک زہریلے سانپ نے کبوتر کو خوشی خوشی گھومتے ہوئے دیکھا اور اس کے منہ میں پانی بھر آیا سانپ نے کبوتر کو مار کر کھانے کی کوشش شروع کر دی لیکن کبوتر اس کے ہاتھ نہ آیا کبوتر نے جا کر اپنے گھر والوں سے مشورہ کیا اور پھر اسے اس نے سانپ کو جا کر دوستی کی پیشکش کی کبوتر کے اچھے سلوک سے متاثر ہو کر سانپ نے اپنی غلطی کا اعتراف کیا اور دونوں دوست بن گئے۔ یہ کہانی ہمیں یہ سبق دیتی ہے کہ بات چیت کرنا اور امن و امان سے رہنا ہمیشہ بہترین راستہ ہوتا ہے۔

نوجوان نسل اور سوشل میڈیا کے اثرات

کہا جاتا ہے کہ آج دنیا ایک گلوبل ویج میں تبدیل ہو چکی ہے اور موجودہ تیز رفتار ترقی یافتہ دور میں انسانی زندگی پر جس عنصر نے سب سے زیادہ اثر ڈالا ہے وہ میڈیا ہے۔ میڈیا اسٹڈیز میں "میڈیا ف ایکٹس تھیوریز" ایک اہم شعبہ ہے۔ یہ نظریات اس بات کی تحقیق کرتے ہیں کہ میڈیا کس طرح افراد اور معاشرے کو متاثر کرتا ہے ان تحقیقات سے یہ بات واضح ہوتی ہے کہ میڈیا کسی نہ کسی شکل میں انسان کی اگائی کا فروغ دیتا ہے اور عوام اور خواص کی سوچ کو تشکیل دینے میں اہم کردار ادا کرتا ہے۔

پاکستان کی عوام بالخصوص نوجوان نسل کو سوشل میڈیا کی یلغار نے اپنی گرفت میں لے رکھا ہوا ہے پہلے فیس بک نے پھر ٹویٹر نے پھر واٹس ایپ اور انسٹا گرام عرض ان گنت ایسے ذرائع ہیں جن میں نوجوان اپنے آپ کو مشغول رکھے ہوئے ہیں ایک طرف سوشل میڈیا بیزاری پھیلانے، روزی کے ذرائع، اور انسانوں کو ایک دوسرے سے قریب کرنے کے لیے مثبت طریقے سے استعمال کیا جاتا ہے تو دوسری طرف دنیا بھر میں رونما ہونے والے جرائم کی ایک بڑی وجہ یہی سوشل میڈیا ہے۔ اس کا استعمال کو نقصان دے حد تک بڑھانے کی وجہ سے صحت پر بھی مضر اثرات مرتب ہو رہے ہیں۔ نوجوانوں میں ڈپریشن میں اضافہ ہو رہا ہے اور ذہنی صحت کو تباہ کیا جا رہا ہے۔

اگر ہم حالات حاضرہ پر نظر ڈالیں تو فلسطین اسرائیل کی جنگ کی صورت میں ہمیں سوشل میڈیا کے استعمال کی ایک بہترین مثال ملتی ہے سوشل میڈیا نے فلسطینیوں کے حقوق کی حمایت میں عالمی یکجہتی کی تحریک کو متحرک کرنے میں ضرورت فراہم کی ہے جس میں اسرائیل کے خلاف بائیکاٹ انخلاء اور پابندیوں کے مطالبات شامل ہیں۔ ہیش ٹیکز، تصاویر، اور ویڈیوز کے استعمال کے ذریعے فلسطینی عوام بالخصوص فلسطینی صحافی دنیا بھر کے عوام سے حمایت حاصل کرتے ہوئے فلسطینیوں کی نسل کشی پر روشنی ڈالنے میں کامیاب ہوئے۔ دوسری طرف سوشل میڈیا کے ذریعے اسرائیلی پروپیگنڈا نے غلط معلومات کے ذریعے فلسطین کے مقدمے کو کمزور کرنے کی کوشش کی لیکن اس میں اور ایک خاطر خواہ کامیابی حاصل نہ ہو سکی۔

کوئی ایجاد بذات خود بری نہیں ہوتی بلکہ اس کا استعمال اسے اچھا یا برا بناتا ہے اسی طرح سوشل میڈیا جیسی طاقتور اور موثر ایجاد کو اگر مثبت سرگرمیوں میں استعمال کیا جائے تو یہ انسانی زندگی کی تعمیر کے لیے بہت اہم ہتھیار ثابت ہو سکتا ہے اب یہ ہمارا فرض ہے کہ ذرائع ابلاغ کو ہر میڈیم کو استعمال کرتے ہوئے معاشرے میں میڈیا کی منفی کردار کو اجاگر کریں اور مثبت انداز سے اسے استعمال کریں اس کوشش کو کامیاب بنانے کے لیے ایک لائنک ہو یا چاہئے ایک شیئر۔ یہیں ہمیں اپنے حصے کا کام کرنا ہے۔ کیونکہ بقول شاعر :-

شکوہ ظلمت شب سے تو کہیں بہتر تھا

اپنے حصے کی کوئی شمع جلائے جائے

میں نے چلائی گاڑی

میں نے چلائی گاڑی

کیا شوق تھا مجھ پر طاری

سودا لانا بن گئی ذمہ داری

ہر روز کی میری خواری

میں نے چلائی گاڑی

لگ گئی میری دیہاڑی

بارش اور گاڑی میں آوارہ گردی

لیکن روک لیا پہنا تھا جو وردی

کیوں میں نے چلائی گاڑی

پڑ گئی مجھے بہت بھاری

سردی آئی نعمتیں لائی

سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ بہت سی نعمتیں لائی

سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ کینو مالٹا لائی
سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ بہت سی نعمتیں لائی

سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ بادام وکاجو لائی
سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ بہت سی نعمتیں لائی

سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ پستہ و کشمش لائی
سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ بہت سی نعمتیں لائی

سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ بہت سے میٹھے لائی
سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ اس نے گرمی بھگائی

سردی آئی سردی آئی ساتھ بہت سی نعمتیں لائی
